

ECSWR 2021

10TH EUROPEAN CONFERENCE FOR SOCIAL WORK RESEARCH

5 - 7 May 2021 • Virtual Conference

Social Work Research: Contributing to Innovations in Practice, Policy and Social Development

Guidelines for Oral Papers

Participants are expected to present their paper live, using the conference platform, which is based on Zoom. In an exceptional situation, when a presenter cannot attend the conference at the allocated time, they should contact us to receive further details about uploading a video-recording of their presentation at: ecswr2020@sas.unibuc.ro and secretariat@ecswr2020.org.

In each parallel session there are 3 or 4 papers allocated. The time for each presentation is 15 minutes + 5 minutes for discussions. At the end of all presentations, there are 10 more minutes for general discussions related to the whole session.

Each session has a designated Chair who will moderate the discussions and keep the time of each presentation. All sessions are video-recorded. Presenters will be able to share their screen and present their paper.

Please note:

- The reference time from the conference program is Central European Summer Time (GMT +2).
- Only registered participants will be able to access the conference platform.
- You will be receiving the information to access the platform latest on 3 May 2021
- The platform can be accessed from various devices.
- Each registered presenter will receive the details to access the platform.
- The conference platform will allow each participant to access their preferred sessions.
